muffling the microphone). Dykes confirms that the conversations are recorded because he wants to be on record ("FOR COURT?") (10:00) ---- Dykes tells a story from his past about trusting people. Dykes says that he hasn't smoked pot lately because he doesn't want to do it in front of the child. He talks about quitting smoking cigarettes and that this is what's wrong with the world today... no self control. He begins rambling about someone who lives at the trailer park down the road that he helped "break down" some pot. Somehow, someone reported on Dykes, and it wasn't his fault. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] His friends betrayed him and law enforcement thought that he'd cooperate with law enforcement for the sake of his family. But Dykes refuses to turn anyone in, or "push the law on anyone," who is doing the same thing that he was doing. (10:15) ---- Still talking about pot and people who set him up in the past. Negotiators stop him to announce that the [REDACTED] has arrived. Negotiators tell him that they will call him back when the [REDACTED] is at the bunker.

13:26 1/31/2013 - Negotiator calls Dykes and asks about [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Dykes says that the kid is keeping him on his toes, but everything is ok. This is the first time he's had to deal with a child. He says that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Dykes says that he needs to give his property to someone when he's gone. He states that because of his "screw up" the other day (shooting the bus driver), there's no way out of this for him. He states that he's not going back to prison. He says that he did it and can't live with that on his conscience. He says that he's burned out and can't live anymore. (13:35) ---- Negotiator is trying to get convince him to live in order to tell his story himself. Complains about the media, homosexuals... states that life begins with lies such as Santa Claus and the Tooth Fairy. Negotiator tells Dykes that the "reporter" Dykes spoke to the other day is scared of him and doesn't want to meet with him. Dykes says that she could make a lot of money on telling the story. Negotiator says that L.E. is trying to find a reporter, but no one wants to do it. Dykes says that he wants to donate his body so they can look at his brain to find out what's different about him. Dykes says that we should be able to find a reporter to tell his story, as many go into war zones. Dykes complains about interviews that the media is doing with people claiming to be his neighbors. Negotiators suggest him recording his "message" in his own words, but Dykes wants to talk to a live person. Negotiator says that no one will go into the bunker with him, but Dykes insists that there have to be reporters who would kill to get in the bunker with him. (13:46) ---- Dykes says that there is know turning back for him now, so he can't come out to tell his story. Dykes says that he will not tell his story alone. He is mad at negotiator [REDACTED] because he feels that he lied to him. He says that he will not sit down there by himself, and he doesn't care what the reporter looks like, but insists that he tell his story in person. Negotiator asks what the interview environment is like, and Dykes describes the bunker: bunks, 3 feet wide by 8 feet long, a private area to use the bathroom with air movement for the odor. He says that he started this two years ago.

(13:53) ---- Dykes asks if their calls are being recorded, and the negotiator says that it is. Negotiator asks about the weapons/explosives in the bunker. Dykes says that he has 11 pounds of black powder inside a pipe connected to a 1 pound propane canister. He would ignite the shotgun shell to start the explosion. He keeps the explosives/firearm on the top bunk out of reach of the child. The child saw the gun once but hasn't handled it. Dykes says that [redacted] will never see the gun again because he is keeping it hidden. Dykes says that [redacted] Dykes says that he's keeping the space comfortable by adjusting the fan in the bunker. He has plenty of water, but [redacted]

Dykes requests [redacted] [redacted] Dykes says that the child is a [redacted] [redacted] Dykes agrees to the [redacted] and seems calm. He says he's tired. Dykes asks if the negotiator knows [redacted] (Sheriff's Office) and says that he's worked with Gordon in 1971/1972. Dykes says that he has a DVD player. During the conversation, Dykes acknowledges the delivery to the SWAT team verbally [redacted]

[redacted] Dykes begins complaining about politics, race, and homosexuality; also that children are not taught about the law in school. Dykes complains that it seems that he's the only one opening his mouth to verbalize what is wrong in the world. He states that he believes in most of the Ten Commandments, but not in religion as a doctrine. He believes in decency and honesty, and believes that there's something wrong with people who need religion to know what is right and wrong. He states that every war ever fought was because of belief in God. He states that freedom of speech is getting out of hand, and the government isn't being honest with its people about world events. This is the story that Dykes wants to get out. (16:27) ---- Dykes states that the [redacted]

[redacted] He says that he wants to get the kid out of there. Dykes says that no matter what happens, he's never going to walk out of there, but he would like to talk to [redacted] The negotiator says that we are trying to track them down, and that one has been located out of state. The negotiator asks what he envisions it taking to get the child out of the bunker. Dykes attempts to redirect the conversation and starts complaining about the different commercial trucking laws from state to state, and how this makes it difficult for truck drivers. He tells a story about how a friend and he went out to visit a prostitute during Vietnam, and wonders how anyone could be attracted to a prostitute who's being paid for her services (ranting). Stated that there's been three times in his life where he's acted stupidly: usually when he was drinking Jack Daniels. He nearly killed someone after getting angry, but each time someone convinced him not to do it, or the other person left. He stopped drinking whisky because of it. (16:42) ---- Dykes says that his story is so "out of the box" that no one else knows how to say it. The negotiator asks if the reporter comes up there to get his story, will he release the kid. Dykes says that, as soon as he tells it, the kid is out. But he will not tell his story through a hole in the ground... he hangs up angrily [redacted] intentionally to harm anyone and says he was never able to accomplish anything at the dog track or anything in life. Negotiator discusses Dykes being a strong man. Dykes says he's not doing this to be rebellious he is trying to force them... Then begins talking about Jerry Springer and homosexuality and everyone forcing people to accept those things. Negotiator says Dykes should keep fighting. Dykes says "no" he's tired of fighting. Says he is going to force govt to face the truth. Dykes then says he was not going to go to court and put his hand on the bible and swear. Believes he would not have gotten justice. Says he knows how they do. Dykes says he didn't start this stuff he just responded. The other guy made the threats he just responded (referring to why he had to go to court). Believes court is just a money system. Negotiator says he has got the attention of everyone. Dykes says if he doesn't go through with this it won't matter. Dykes says if the man would have just listened to him (bus driver), he wouldn't have had to shoot him. Dykes said he told him "please don't make me do something I don't want to do." Dykes says the man had been programmed even though everyone is calling him a hero. Negotiator says you have to keep fighting. Dykes says he is trying but he's not going to die like a nut case. Dykes says this has never happened in the history of humanity for someone to kidnap someone for a positive reason. Says one of the reporters called him anti-govt although she doesn't know anything about him. Says they should go to [redacted] if they want to find out the truth about him. Dykes says he screwed up and is ready to go but is ready to die and he is not going quietly. Dykes says it's going to get out one way or another and whatever happens is their responsibility. Dykes says everyone keeps telling him he needs to compromise. Dykes says there won't be a compromise, he is ready to die. Said when they said they are having a hard time finding someone he said that's a lie because there are reporters in war zones. Dykes says he be to hurt someone who is helping him (reporter). Asks Dykes what he wants to get out. He says he can't say because it just goes on and on. Mahr and the mayor of SF being on the show. Her response was no proof. Dykes then says he hasn't smoked marijuana in there. Then and found a one would ever do it although he thought about it a long time ago with just a sixth grade education. Dykes says as long as you are not doing anything else that is hurting anyone else in society [redacted]

[redacted] Dykes then discusses all of the cars and helicopters outside and "Not a damn thing going on." Says it's a waste of money because he's not leaving and they are not coming in. --Whispers this information so [redacted] can not hear-

Dykes then discusses prohibition and states that started gang wars. [redacted] [redacted] Then continues talking about news reporters talking and not having a clue.
Dykes explains that he has had this conversation with several people (such as at truck stops) and they state that they have never thought about it like that.

Dykes says in our society people think everyone happens in a sound bite – five words and over. But, he doesn't want it to. comes to speak to him and hear his story will be alive with them to be alive because he wants a voice. Dykes says he wants that person to live so that she can tell his story. All the hell he wants is to have his freedom of speech. He says he knows that if you say the wrong things up there, then they'll mop you up. Dykes says he already told them how the casinos and dogs are rigged, and all of this information is already on tape. If shit goes sour, then lawyers are going to want to know what happened. Dykes says that if he can get what he wants, then everything can be ended peacefully. He says he's not going to make a move unless someone comes through that door. But, if they come through that door, it'll all be over. Negotiator tells him that we aren't coming in the door. Dykes says he will force our hands if we don't start doing something quickly. He says that whoever is in charge better start talking to him. He tells the negotiator that whoever brings the [redacted] should tap on the door when they get there because he doesn't have a damn thing to say to whoever brings it. Dykes says he doesn't want to talk to any damn body unless it's the person in charge. Dykes says he will only accept the [redacted] and nothing else. Dykes asks the negotiator's name. Negotiator tells him his name and that he just got word that the [redacted] is on the way. Call ends.

11:00 Dykes makes a call on phone to negotiator. Asks if the negotiator has any information on the situation with the phone. Negotiator tells Dykes that they are scared to give him a phone because of what he might do to Binan if Dykes completes all the calls he needs to make. Dykes says that the calls will be to talk to CNN or the news to put the information on record. Dykes says the situation won't end until he can get the phone and make the calls he needs to make. Dykes also mentions talking to his uncle. Dykes says he will cut off all communication and [REDACTED] if we don't start allowing him to make the calls he needs to make. Dykes wants to talk to someone in authority so something can start happening as far as getting [REDACTED] out. Negotiator tells Dykes that he is checking on the situation with the phone and then Dykes hangs up.

[redacted] Dykes places phone call to negotiator and asks negotiator to bring [redacted] Negotiator responds that the [redacted] will be delivered within the next 30 minutes. Dykes asks if there is anything else coming with the [redacted] Negotiator replies that he thinks there are some Capri-Sun drinks in there [redacted] Dykes says they won't be a good idea because they'll bust. Dykes says he isn't fooling with the door anymore, and not to put anything in there other than the [redacted] Dykes says he is getting tired of all of this shit. He's tired of being lied to. And, he knows that nobody wants to do a damn thing for him. If he can't get what he wants and what goes out to the public is negative, it will all go bad. Says [redacted] has been there for 6 days and he needs to be out of there. He guarantees that if someone tries to come through the hatch that they won't make it to the bottom. The negotiator asks Dykes what he wants. Dykes responds that everyone already knows what he wants. Dykes wants to know who the head honcho is because somebody needs to give him answers. Dykes says he will force our hand. If someone tries to come through the door, then someone is going to have to answer to why it ended the way it did. Dykes says he's not a nutcase and that he's trying to talk and get a message out. If it goes bad and gets to that point, then this conversation will get out to the public and they'll know why it ended the way it did. The negotiator tells Dykes he sounds angry. Dykes responds that he is angry. And, he's tired of playing games. [redacted] been "Goddamn good," or so he thought. But, he says if he has to car [redacted] tomorrow, then he's not playing the game with anyone else. Somebody in authority better make the right decisions. Dykes says he doesn't want to blow himself up. He wants to go out nice and quietly, and he'd like to talk to [redacted] before then. But, if we force his hand, [redacted] won't see what happened because it will be over. [redacted] But he should want it to happen that way. Dykes says that whoever [redacted] live when they leave.
